

Charleston Distance Run

July 28, 2013

COUNTDOWN TO THE CDR

33 DAYS

Don't Let These CDR Deadlines Pass You By

Don't let two Charleston Distance Run race deals pass you by like a fading runner in the stretch.

Registrations for the 15-mile race must be received by Thursday, Aug. 1, to take advantage of the reduced early entrant fee of $35. After that date, the 15-mile registration fee is $45 by Aug. 21 and $55 by 9 p.m. Aug. 30.

Orders for the special CDR souvenir pullover also must be received by Thursday, Aug. 1. Priced at $40, the lightweight, charcoal gray pullovers feature the embroidered CDR logo in white lettering on the chest.

For links to registration information and race details, visit the special Distance Run section on wchstv.com at this link:

<http://www.wchstv.com/newsroom/sports/cdr/>

WOUNDED WARRIOR

This year the Distance Run is proud to be a supporter of Wounded Warrior, with $1 of every entry fee going to this special program to assist wounded service personnel.

Thursday, Aug. 1, is a very important deadline day for the Charleston Distance Run. It's when early registrations must be received for the 15-miler to take advantage of $10 to $20 in savings. Orders also must be received that day for the special CDR souvenir pullover.

Check out the newsletter for more information about these important offers.

We hope to see you at the starting line at 7:30 a.m. Aug. 31 on Kanawha Boulevard at the West Virginia Capitol.

Sincerely,

Charleston Distance Run Committee